

Toruń

This road goes also through the bridge of Józef Piłsudski.

Kruszwica

Pilgrims are able to see a lot of monuments on the Camino de Santiago. One of them is roman basilic of Saint Peter and Paul. This is probably the best preserved roman object in Poland.

Despite all of the historic, cultural and religious advantages the roud also abounds with places conncted with nature. Jezioro Gopło in Kruszwica is placed within NATURA 2000.

In the hearth of Kruszwica it is easy to find the church of Thérèse of Lisieux.

See you on the route!

Nowe Miasto Lubawskie

This inconspicuous town has its own secrets!

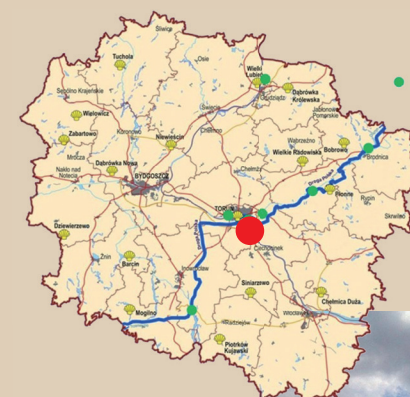

„Miejsce Inicjatyw Pozytywnych Kacze Bagno” is the organisation functioning in Nowe Miasto Lubawskie. It organises alternative cultural events – for example Fire Theater.

Golub-Dobrzyń

Castle in Golub-Dobrzyń is very popular among tourists! Pilgrims can watch there Knights Tournaments and a part of Camino Polaco.

Złotoria

In this picture one can admire neogothic St. Adalberts of Prague church. Złotoria is the place of Danusia's death. Danusia is hero of the book „Krzyżacy” by Henryk Sienkiewicz.

Wielki Lubień

Saint James' Church from 1680 is placed in Wielki Lubień. Admittedly it hasn't any features connected with specific style but it has very captivating interior.

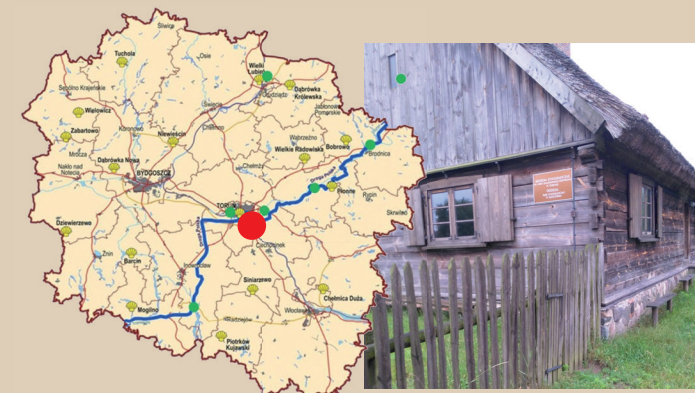

Brzozówka

Here in Brzozówka route goes through stunning mixed forest. On ones way one can encounter evangelical cemetery. Yellow ribbons are saying: „This is the favourite way of the pilgrims!”

Kaszczerk

On the route of Santiago de Compostela in Poland it is worth to visit historic open-air museum which shows daily life of polish old-time village.
